

Thank you to our Sponsors!

MH Mission Hill Fenway
Neighborhood Trust, Inc.

THE
FEN
WAY

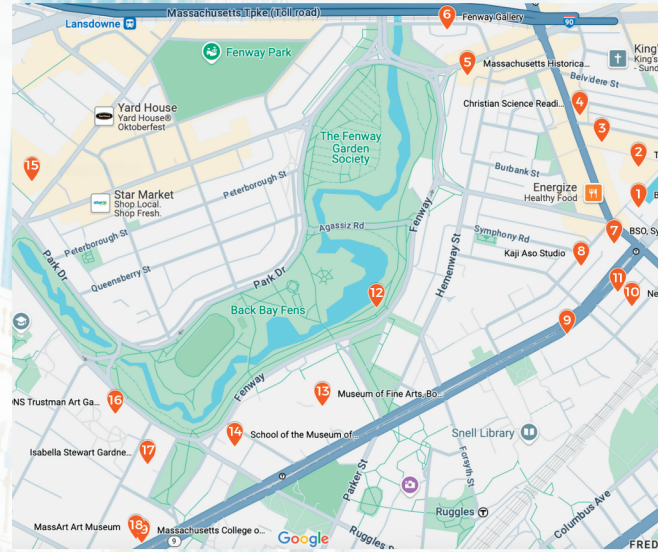

City of Boston
Arts and Culture

For a full list of sponsors, visit the link below!

Site Map

- 1) Boston Youth Symphony Orchestras
- 2) The First Church of Christ, Scientist
- 3) The Mary Baker Eddy Library
- 4) The Mother Church Reading Room
- 5) Massachusetts Historical Society
- 6) Fenway Gallery at Fenway Studios
- 7) Boston Symphony Orchestra, Symphony Hall
- 8) Kaji Aso Studio
- 9) Huntington Avenue YMCA
- 10) New England Conservatory of Music, Bower Stage
- 11) The Huntington Theatre
- 12) Emerald Necklace Conservancy, Shattuck Visitor Center
- 13) Museum of Fine Arts, Boston
- 14) School of the Museum of Fine Arts at Tufts
- 15) Time Out Market
- 16) Trustman Art Gallery at Simmons University
- 17) Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
- 18) MassArt Art Museum
- 19) Massachusetts College of Art and Design

Monday, October 14th,
2024

All Yours, All Free: A Day of Performances, Art, and Cultural Experiences in the Fenway
Cultural District

Opening Our Doors programs run throughout the Fenway Cultural District including art exhibits, performances, nature and historical walks, art activities, open houses and more. See our list of locations on the back and follow the QR code for information about site-specific programming, sponsors, and more!

Monday, October 14th, 2024

All Yours, All Free: A Day of Performances, Art, and Cultural Experiences in the Fenway Cultural District

Join us as we kick-off this year's Opening Our Doors Day: Welcome and speaking program with Senator Will Brownsberger; Representative Jay Livingstone; City Councilor Sharon Durkan; and representatives from MCC and Mayor's Office of Art & Culture. Reading by the Boston Youth Poet Laureate Parker-Vincent Alva; Performances by Boston Children's Chorus; Handel and Haydn Society Youth Choruses; Northeastern University's Eon Dance Troupe and a Children's Parade with Hot Tamale Brass Band around the Reflecting Pool on the Christian Science Plaza. All are welcome!

